Short Extracts from Modern French Authors. For the use of Schools. With Biographical Notices.

EXTRACT FROM PREFACE.

“ The object of the extracts is twofold: firstly, to supply the student with the examples of the variety of idioms and of grammatical construction employed by the best modern French writers; secondly, to give an insight into modern French literature. . . . The extracts have been chiefly selected from those authors who take high rank in French literature on account of the purity and elegance of their style. . . . The book is not intended for beginners, but for those who have mastered the principles of the grammar, and possess a tolerably extensive vocabulary of words, but who require something more than the mere delectus before they can expect to take their place by the side of those who have had the advantage of a residence abroad.”

Complete, with Index, 4 vols., 8vo., 42s., strongly bound.

A History of Modern Europe; from the taking of Constantinople by the Turks, to the Close of the War in the Crimea, 1453-1857. By THOS. H. DYER, LL.D., Author of the "History of the City of Rome," "The Ruins of Pompeii," "The Kings of Rome," &c.

"Mr. Dyer's History is a valuable sequel to that of Gibbon, whom he has evidently studied as a model."—John Bull.

"Mr. Dyer's 'History of Modern Europe' is the only good work of its kind extant in English. The work was a difficult one, from the vast wealth of matter to tell and the constant temptation to dwell at disproportionate length upon certain passages, as well as generally upon the affairs of England, but he has arranged and proportioned his narrative admirably well; it is really of Europe that he tells the modern history. His style is clear and close, and the work has a thoroughly good index."—Examiner.

THE NEW BIBLE COMMENTARY.

Nearly Ready, Vol. I. (to be continued at regular intervals), Medium 8vo.

THE HOLY BIBLE,

ACCORDING TO THE AUTHORIZED VERSION, A.D. 1611.

WITH EXPLANATORY AND CRITICAL NOTES AND A REVISION OF THE TRANSLATION,
BY BISHOPS AND CLERGY OF THE ANGLICAN CHURCH.

VOL. I.—THE PENTATEUCH.

THE want of a plain Explanatory Commentary on the Bible more complete and accurate than any now accessible to English readers has been long felt by men of education. In 1863 THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS consulted some of the Bishops as to the best way of supplying the deficiency; and the ARCHBISHOP OF YORK undertook to organize a plan for producing such a work, by the co-operation of several Scholars selected for their Biblical learning.

The great object of such a Commentary must be to put the general reader in full possession of whatever information may be requisite to enable him to understand the Holy Scriptures, to give him, as far as possible, the same advantages as the Scholar, and to supply him with satisfactory answers to objections resting upon misrepresentation of the Text.

It has been decided to reprint, without alteration, the Authorized Version from the edition of 1611, with the marginal references and renderings; but the notes forming this Commentary will give amended translations of passages proved to be incorrect in our Version. The Comment will be chiefly explanatory, presenting, in a concise and readable form, the results of learned investigations, carried on in this and other countries during the last half century. When fuller discussions of difficult passages or important subjects are necessary, they will be placed at the end of the Chapter or of the Volume.

The plan of the work has been settled, and the writers have been appointed, under the sanction of a Committee consisting of:—

ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY,
ARCHBISHOP OF YORK,
BISHOP OF LONDON,
BISHOP OF LLANDAFF,
BISHOP OF GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL,

BISHOP OF CHESTER,
LORD LYTTELTON,
RIGHT HON. THE SPEAKER,
RIGHT HON. SPENCER WALPOLE,
DEAN OF LINCOLN.

The conduct of the work, as general Editor, has been entrusted to F. C. COOK, M.A., Canon of Exeter, Preacher at Lincoln's Inn, Examining Chaplain to the Bishop of London, and Chaplain in Ordinary to the Queen.

The ARCHBISHOP OF YORK, in consultation with the REGIUS PROFESSORS OF DIVINITY OF OXFORD AND CAMBRIDGE, advises with the general Editor upon questions arising during the progress of the work.
